BISHOP CREIGHTON.

The Story of Some English Shires.

By the late MANDELL CREIGHTON, D.D.,
Lord Bishop of London. Demy 8vo, cloth gilt, 6s. net (by post 6s. 4d.).

THIRD EDITION NOW READY.

The following Shires are included in this Volume:—Cambridge, Cheshire, Cumberland, Derby, Durham, Gloucester, Hereford, Huntingdon, Lancashire, Leicester, Northampton, Northumberland, Shropshire, Stafford, Warwick, Westmoreland, Worcester, Yorkshire.

Morning Post.—"This simple and clear reprint of Dr. Creighton's work is most welcome, and will be a useful addition to many a library and bookshelf."

Times.—"The Bishop was never more happy than when dealing with local history. He gave it a breadth and vitality which made it almost a liberal education in itself."

Athenaeum.—"Fine scholarship, adequate knowledge, and an easy style of writing are rarely combined. All these qualities were conspicuous in the late Dr. Creighton's work, and we therefore welcome this re-issue."

Spectator.—"A happy combination of accuracy and picturesqueness."

LORD NORTHBROOK.

The Teaching of Jesus Christ in His Own Words.

Compiled by the EARL OF NORTHBROOK. Cloth, gilt top, 1s. 6d.

ROBERT NEEDHAM CUST, LL.D.—"It has the freshness of a beautiful romance; a voice speaking to the soul of each reader, and so simple that the youngest and the least educated can understand it—the very words of the Lord Jesus Christ, our Redeemer. It will make the student who becomes its possessor acquainted, in an easy and informal way, with the words of Him who spake as never man spake."

FAMILY PRAYERS.

Thy Heart's Desire: A Book of Family

Prayers and Scripture Readings for the Mornings and Evenings of Three Months. Large crown 8vo, cloth gilt, burished edges, 6s.

Daily News.—"Beautifully worded petitions."

Methodist Times.—"As a manual of morning and evening prayers for family use it is almost all that such a book should be—simple, homely, tender, unhackneyed."

Churchman.—"There are many households in which such a volume will be welcomed."

* For SPECIAL PRESENTATION this work can be had in two extra styles:—Paste grain, limp, round corners, gilt roll, gilt edges, 9s. net; by post, 9s. 4d. Paste grain, yapp, gilt edges, 10s. 6d. net; by post, 10s. 10d.

DR. J. AGAR BEET.

Parts, 1s. net.

"Social England" presents what we consider to be the best and most real picture of national life to be found in any historical work. It produces a better and truer picture of the English people and their achievements than any history on the more formal and stately plan which we know.—The Outlook.

Just Published, the second and concluding

Volume of

The National

Portrait Gallery.

Edited by

LIONEL CUST, M.A., F.S.A.,

Director of the Gallery.

Illustrating every Picture in the Gallery.

Complete in Two Volumes in Paper Covers, price £6 6s. net.

"We can imagine nothing better calculated to give life and reality to history and historic characters than to have these volumes on the shelf for constant reference. The printing of the blocks is quite extraordinarily good and does the greatest credit to the publishers and to all concerned."—Westminster Gazette.

"The NATIONAL GALLERY," edited by Sir E. J. Poynter, P.R.A., uniform with this Work, was issued in 3 vols. at £7 7s. net in 1899-1900, and the Edition was limited to 1,000 Copies, is nearly exhausted, there being only a very few copies remaining unsold. The present price is £14 14s. net in paper covers, £17 17s. net in fine half-morocco binding by Riviere, and £21 net in full morocco, and the publishers reserve to themselves the right to still further increase the price.
